SPARKLERS HAVE IT IN FOR SAINTS

Great Doings at Athletic Park on Labor Day--Juniors Will Scrap.

The next big excitement in the baseball line will be the scrap at the Athletic park between the Sparklers and the Saints next Monday. There is more than a trifle of rivalry between the two teams and they are each determined to hand it to the other bunch. The fans have not patronized the big league series, but that does not prevent the players from being enthused and wanting to hand it to somebody. The Diamond Head team thinks it is the grandest aggregation that ever walloped a hard in curve. The St. Louis team thinks it is the most marvelous, magnificent and miraculous getting together of all the ball experts.

Naturally enough there has been a difference of opinion between the two. Therefore it was decided that the merits of the case should be discussed at the Athletic park on Labor Day. Both teams were willing and so it was arranged.

The Athletic park diamond is of the skin variety and it is very fast. The field, level and sown with new grass, is ideal for fast and accurate fielding and the two teams will have every condition ideal for putting up the game of their lives.

The two teams will have something to help them along that they have not had for a long time. Bleacher enthusiasm. It will be a great thing for the boys, who have been playing to empty benches at the league grounds, to hear the cheers of three thousand fans at every snappy play and the roars of discontent of just as many fans over an error.

This reminds that the only rooting done at the league grounds last Saturday during the really excellent game played by the Kams and Pusters, came from the press box. Mr. Andrews, the official scorer, and two newspapermen decided to try and get the few fans present going.

Their efforts met with some small success. In fact a genial individual right back of the press box began to splutter but always restrained himself. An inquisitive somebody asked him why he failed to root. "Root?" was the answer. "Root? Why, I haven't rooted for five years. I assisted at a game at Toledo and was steaming along on a swift course of enthusiasm for the visiting team but made one small and mild remark. They wanted to lynch me. I had to be escorted home from the grounds by the police. Yet all I said was, 'The Toledo team is rotten.' Believe me the Toledo team was rotten. But I have never rooted since. I go to ball games and endure agonies in holding myself in. But I know the danger and one more remark like that may land me in the cemetery."

Then he blew his nose violently, crunched eight peanuts in his right hand and was heard to mutter something about "Oh you Zeb, oh you fool, who ever called you a ball player? Say, if I had sixty carats in a diamond I'd soak the whole bunch to get a snoop at you. Ay, what's the use?" And then he subsided and bought a bottle of lemonade which he very nearly threw at the umpire.

But that is the kind they have at the Athletic park and there will be some doings on the bleachers when the Saints and Sparklers get together. Also there will be one great curtain raiser by the Asahis and Junior Drag-onlets.

The Asahi kiddos are now on Maui handing it to the Japs of the hospitable island. At least we hope they are handing it. As a matter of fact it is more fun to go to Maui and get beaten than it is to win. They do things so well over there.

The Athletic Park management has sent an invitation via Prince Cupid to the Congressional party to be present at the games next Sunday. This will certainly be an eye-opener for the visitors when they see a team composed entirely of Chinese players slipping it to the Marines, or vice versa.

FINALS COULD NOT BE PLAYED

Mixed Doubles Semi-Finals Close Enough to Reach Darkness.

In the semi-finals of the mixed doubles yesterday afternoon on the Beretania courts, Sonny Cunha and Mrs. R. Hind defeated E. S. Gee and Mrs. D. D. Gregory 7-5, 7-9, 6-3. F. E. Steere and Miss M. Hall defeated D. Anderson and Miss M. Birney 6-3, 6-3.

A large and enthusiastic gallery witnessed the closest and most exciting match played so far during the tournament when Mrs. Hind and Sonny finally won out after two hours of brilliant play. It had been the intention to play the finals immediately after the two matches scheduled but it was almost dark at the completion of the qualifying rounds.

Mrs. Hind played a beautiful game. She possesses all of the qualifications necessary to make a tennis player, nerve, steadiness, a good stroke and an excellent service. Time and again Gee would smash the ball down into her territory and she would place it perfectly, passing him as he came to the net. Cunha's ability is too well known to require special mention. He is undoubtedly one of the best players in doubles in the Territory and he was certainly the goods yesterday. He was there with the happy smile, the tantalizing placing and his proverbial yell "nobody there," generally turned out to be a statement of fact.

After Sonny and Mrs. Hind had run up four games to one in the first set, Mr. Gee and Mrs. Gregory steadied down and tied the score. The ninth game went to Cunha and Mrs. Hind but their opponents again tied the score at 5 games all. After two games that went to deuce and vantage so many times that the referee became weary, Cunha and Mrs. Hind finally pulled out the set 7-5.

The second set was a hummer. Cunha and his partner again started out with a lead of 3 games to 1, which was tied at 3 games all. During the last portion of the deciding set Mrs. Hind played brilliantly, repeatedly returning almost impossible shots and placing her returns so far in the back court that her opponents could not handle them. Every point was hotly contested but Cunha and Mrs. Hind gradually forged ahead and took the three deciding games necessary for the match. This was by far the best match of the tournament and it is safe to say that no better tennis in mixed doubles has ever been seen in Honolulu.

Too much credit cannot be given Mrs. D. D. Gregory, from Schofield Barracks, for her showing during this tournament. It was her first appearance in tournament play and she has won the admiration of every one by her plucky struggle against odds. Her match with Mrs. Hind in singles was extremely close although the score seemed one sided and her playing with Mr. Gee yesterday was a revelation to those who had not seen her play.

The match between Miss Hall and F. E. Steere and Miss Birney and D. Anderson was hotly contested from start to finish. Anderson played a brilliant net game and Miss Birney was quick on her feet and covered court much better than in her match in singles against Miss Hall. Miss Hall played her usual good game and Steere assisted in making the combination that Cunha and Mrs. Hind will play in the finals on Thursday afternoon.

The drawings in gentlemen's doubles are given below. Play will begin promptly in this portion of the tournament at 4:00 p. m. today. All gentlemen entered in doubles should be present at this hour. Finals in mixed doubles will be played Thursday. Finals in ladies' singles will be played Friday, and if possible, finals in gentlemen's doubles on Saturday.

There were nine entries in gentlemen's doubles which necessitated a peculiar drawing. There is only one preliminary round and seven byes.

Preliminary round: Noel Deerr and George Waterhouse vs. L. E. Connors and Major Long.

Byes: Greenfield and McKeever vs. F. E. Steere and Hemenway; Sonny Cunha and Gee vs. Anderson and Low; Richards and Richards vs. Brewster and Hoogs; W. R. Roth and Wm. Williamson drew the seventh bye and will play the winners of the Deerr-Waterhouse Connors-Long match.

G. M. Addison, popularly known as "No. 6, here come the letters," has entered for the big ten-mile race at the Athletic Park on September 11. If he can run half as well as he carries mail, he will certainly be there with the goods. Addie has a bunch of backers who will be there to root for him.

The Boers are up against the Japs next Sunday. The King of Spain and Johannes Teylremonte Di Flores are both in great shape. There there Boers shall have a hard time.

Dal Fahy is looking well. He ran five miles in jig time yesterday afternoon, and stated that he felt right. If Dal will stay by the game, he should have a great chance of coping off the big prize a week from Saturday.

YACHT CRUISE SATURDAY.

The yacht Hawaii will start on the cruise to Lanai next Saturday at 3 o'clock. She will return in time to land those on board before very late on Monday night.

This is an unofficial cruise, and all those who wish to go will be assessed $2 each toward the maintenance fund.

Commodore Wilder and the members of the club are very anxious to make this cruise a great success, and it is specially requested that those who wish to go should send in their names at once to C. T. Wilder at the tax office.

As well as the Hawaii, the Gladys, Kamehameha and Charlotte C. will take part in the cruise. It bids fair to be the jolliest cruise yet. There are already several applications in, and those who wish to go should get their names in early.

Sport Notes

Jack Balch wired to J. Pluvius last night as follows: "We want fine weather for Country Club tournament and smoker Saturday." The answer came back: "Mons Assinorum; much good sunshine make fine medicine; no pilikia. Aeneas Poofoo see in state to J. Pluvius."

James Dublin Dougherty has some fine dope for Saturday night at the Country Club smoker. One Waterman is said to be the author of sixty-five limericks. These will be sung by a quartet. A private view was held yesterday. Incidentally they are simply great.

"Sonny" Cunha will fill one half of the clubhouse at the Country Club on Saturday evening. He will preside at the piano and hand out some of those awful ragtime things of his. It will set you back one ringtail to hear him.

Two Jussus will run from the end of the Nuuanu carline to the Country Club next Saturday. There will be a tournament of roses and "Prim-roses." Charlie Hartwell states that he has not yet made the division. Oh, you primes!

Downey and Dal Fahy have entered the big ten-mile race at the Athletic Park on Saturday, September 11. Dal is the wakenpunch who thought he could beat a long-legged newspaper man and got left. But he sure can run some.

Downey made the first ten miles of the late Marathon in 67 minutes. He can reduce this by about five, and stands an excellent chance to win.
